

Molly Powell Barrel Racing Clinic

May 22 – 23, 2010

My love for barrel racing, people, and horses has inspired me to teach the secrets to my success! At my clinics, it is my goal to teach students three things about barrel racing: How horsemanship directly affects your success; How to develop a winning practice routine for you and your horse; and How to stay on the track to success!

Throughout the clinic, I will show students and their horses the steps to follow and achieve quick, snappy turns and make their runs more consistent.

I teach the horsemanship traditions that I use everyday on the horses that I ride and compete on! Horsemanship is not something that you learn overnight! I feel like I am always learning and studying horsemanship, and I probably will forever!! I have had some great teachers, from my family, to my idols, to my great horses...

Horses have probably taught me the most, and I have been very lucky to set on some great ones! My most precious horses have been: my very first pony Brownie (a Welch/Quarter Horse); Blackie (my first 'big' horse); Speedy (the first horse that I trained); Pecan (Brownie's baby girl- 3 NFR's $200,000); Bullet (Brownie's baby boy- died before his 1st NFR); Quaker (the first trained horse that I bought-3NFR's $200,000... died in 2002); Shadow (Blackie's baby boy- 2 NFR's $200,000), and now Raisen (Shadow's brother the Rookie this 2006 season!).
